

If you are currently taking any prescription medication, please notify the prescribing doctor immediately of your positive pregnancy test.

Please call your OB physician before using any over the counter medication.

Please see referral information in packet for doctor listings if you need an OB physician.